

Ready to set flight with IsraelNow?

START HERE

Are you in eighth grade and consider yourself Jewish?

No

IsraelNow is only open to eighth graders who identify as Jewish. We wish you safe travels though!

Yes

Do you attend synagogue or any kind of Jewish school?

Yes

Have you ever been to Israel?

Yes

Want to go back on your own with other students from your city?

Yes

Ready to form a deeper connection with Israel, Judaism and even new friends?

Yes

IsraelNow is more than just a trip, it's a memorable journey that lets you learn about your heritage—and yourself. Each trip helps nurture your connection to Jewish life, make new friends and create unforgettable memories.

Find an IsraelNow trip to set flight!

Maybe

Are you from an interfaith family or have Jewish relatives?

Yes

Have you ever been to synagogue or any kind of Jewish school?

Yes

Curious about your Jewish heritage?

Yes

Want to visit the most popular destinations in Israel and get a taste of Israeli culture?

Yes

How about creating unforgettable memories?

Yes

How about traveling by yourself with other kids your age?

Yes

Want to get more involved in the Jewish community?

Yes

Like exploring new cities or learning about new cultures?

Yes

Contact us to see if you're eligible for IsraelNow!

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

No

IsraelNow trips are a week-long adventure that lets Jewish eighth graders explore Israel and their heritage—creating unforgettable memories and connections.

Learn more about IsraelNow.

Eighth grade is a pivotal time when you're learning who you are. IsraelNow trips are a chance for you to explore a new place in your own way—like with our customizable Track Day.

Learn more about what to expect.